A Dr. Graham lived there; he died last spring and his son-in-law lived here; I can't think of what his name was, Dr. Graham's son-in-law. I don't know whether they were there--

Q Just indicate Graham's son-in-law.

BY MR. PALZER:

Q Now, did Mayor Van Camp have a place pretty near here in the immediate vicinity?

A Yes; we will cut these blocks a little short right here and here would be Reese Avenue, Vance Avenue, McGee Avenue (indicates Wilbur house on McGee Avenue) (indicates two houses on Vance Avenue). Shellenger, he doesn't live there now; he did at that time; he sold it; and the next is McMeekin. They have 100 feet there, and here is Van Camp's house.

Q Now, I think we have a pretty good idea of that. Now, after supper you say you went down to the beach. Were there any other people? Just describe what they were doing on the beach, any other people in sight, and what happened.

A Either just before supper or just afterwards I remember going over to the home of William H. Eger. They live --I had better put it down (indicates Camden Avenue, McGonigel's
